Re: YOUR SUBMISSION

Pemberton & Oakes frequently receives artistic material and marketing ideas from artists and potential vendors, and has established the procedures set forth below with respect to such submissions. Before we will discuss your submission with you please acknowledge and return your agreement to the following. (For purposes of the Acknowledgment, the term "Submission" means the artistic image and/or embodiment of that artistic concept or its marketing which you submit to us.)

You recognize and acknowledge that your Submission, identified at the end of this Letter, may simply be a variation or duplication of a pre-existing concept. If that is the case, or if Pemberton & Oakes previously developed or is presently developing or has previously been presented with an idea similar to your Submission, you understand and agree that our right to use that idea is in no way restricted by your Submission to us. You also acknowledge and agree that if, in the future, a similar idea is independently developed by another artist or employee of Pemberton & Oakes without knowledge of your Submission, or is presented to us by a third party, our right to use that idea in the future is in no way restricted by your Submission to us.

If we are interested in representing you and/or utilizing your Submission, your relationship with Pemberton & Oakes and any prospective licensees will be detailed in a written agreement.

Please download this letter, complete the Submission section(s), and sign either an electronic copy or a hard (paper) copy. Return the signed Acknowledgement to us either before sending your submission or with it. If you have any questions, you may wish to discuss this Acknowledgement with a lawyer. You may call our office at (415) 924-2144 if you have problems with downloading the letter or with questions about the process.

Sincerely, Pemberton & Oakes, Ltd.

Your Submission (Identify/describe by name, media, identifying images or characters, dimensions, etc.). Please use a separate line for each Submission being submitted to Pemberton & Oakes together.

I acknowledge agreement to the terms stated in this letter.
